

A2, SUN IN THE SANDS

SOUTHBOUND

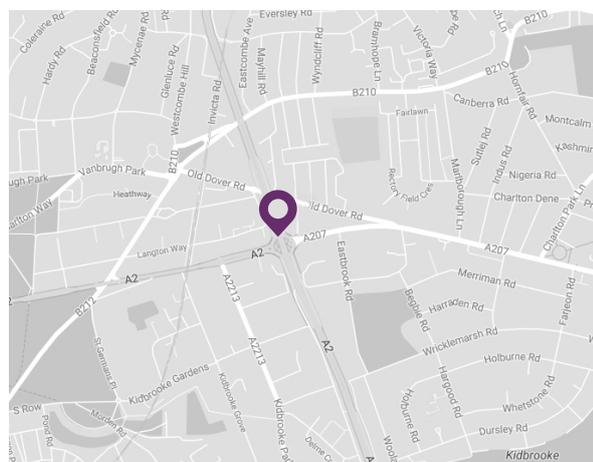

Located in the Affluent area of Black Heath, A2 Sun in Sands has two high definition digital screens located north and southbound on the A2. With three lanes of traffic either side, this location is a TFL traffic hotspot, delivering a fortnightly audience of over 1.9 million.

With no other advertising within a 2-mile radius, these screens dominate their surroundings and deliver a unique and untapped audience.

The Northbound screen targets audiences travelling in to London from Kent or those joining from the M25.

The Southbound screen targets audiences travelling out of London to home counties such as Kent, Surrey & Sussex

Noteworthy areas nearby include; Greenwich The O2, London City Airport, Stratford Westfield & Blackwall Tunnel
